Office Hours: T/TH 12:15-12:45 in MLC 226 & by appointment

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course is a continuation of the study of on camera acting. This course will provide students with a working knowledge and experience of playing in front of the camera and auditioning in front of the camera. The student will gain a more advanced level of understanding of on camera acting and a deepening of the actor's art and craft.

Recommended Text: THE CAMERA SMART ACTOR by Richard Brestoff
(Available in De Anza library reserves)

Optional: USB Flash Drive

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

1. Recognize the process by which actors are interviewed, auditioned, and cast for all forms of media production.
2. Practice and distinguish effective body movement and voice modulation as it pertains to camera acting styles, camera angle and shot size and continuity of takes.
3. Demonstrate advanced skills in the practice and performance of scripted work for the camera and the subsequent critiquing of the work including self evaluation.

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

1. Demonstrate advanced knowledge of the camera media from an actor's perspective.
2. Analyze, prepare, rehearse and perform advanced scripted material both on camera and voiceover.
3. Identify and articulate advanced problems in character development within the context of a shooting schedule.
4. Demonstrate a working vocabulary of equipment used in multi-media, film, and television entertainment industries.
