Title: Elections Code

This item is to discuss adding to the Elections Code the delegation of responsibility for diversity in next year's Senate to the Elections Committee.

Presenter: Ananya Bapat

Time: 10 minutes

- Dennis: working with Equity and Diversity, after elections over, we just need to review elections code and propose changes
 - what worked what didn't
- most/all of spring quarter elections will be about the code
- might want to work with E&D (Equity & Code) codes
 - includes the 30+5 senators rule
- part of election committee is mandated to go do presentations for BSU, Umoja, VIDA, HEFAS, etc
 - some kind of application party to help with apps
 - info sessions just for specific groups on campus
 - invite coordinators to a special meeting to further engage with potential prospectives
 - craft a letter they can send out to students to advertise

- Code Changes, have Marketing Chair or Marketing committee representative required to be part of Elections
- At least have one Senator be apart of Elections, to become VC if all other members are Chairs
